■ Restaurant

YŌSHOKU-YA GINZA LAMP-TEI

The restaurant serves a type of Western-inspired fusion cuisine known as “Yoshoku,” featuring dishes like omurice and Japanese hamburger steak. Despite its western influence, Yoshoku cuisine is now considered Japanese, and has its own distinct flavors.

■ Rooms

STANDARD DOUBLE

Taking inspiration from the symbolic curtain colors of the Kabukiza Theater, the muted green in these functional rooms creates a sense of peace and calm.

■ SUPERIOR TWIN

Also inspired by the Kabukiza curtain colors, these rooms use a persimmon red-orange to convey a sense of passion and energy.

■ SUITE

■ Bar

KOBIKICHŌ-CLUB

Experience the Japanese culture of a “snack” bar, and enjoy a casual drink in Ginza with new friends from around the world.

■ Public Bath

The communal baths use retro tiling with vibrant colors.

■ Lobby

■ Concept: “GINZA POP”

Ginza is a stylish district known for traditional sites like the Kabukiza Theater and for being one of the first places in Japan to embrace Western culture. The hotel’s concept takes elements of Ginza’s characteristics, blending both retro and modern to create an entirely new culture of its own.

■ Location

Ginza is one of Tokyo's most famous shopping, dining and entertainment districts. Within this fashionable district, you’ll find the hotel near the Kabukiza Theater (for traditional performing arts) and the Tsukiji Outer Market (with over 400 restaurants and food-related businesses). The hotel is directly accessible by train from the international airports, Narita and Haneda.
